Founder and Author: Elder Jacob O. Meyer

"Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you of much more value than they?" (Matthew 6:26).

Recent generations have laid up treasures on earth—serving mammon rather than Yahweh. Yet Yahshua instructed us to be full of light. That light can only come from Yahweh, His Word, and His Law. "For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is fight; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life...." (Proverbs 6:23).

Have you chosen the Narrow Pathway that leads to life everlasting in the Kingdom of Yahweh?

"Yet seek the kingdom of Yahweh, and these things shall be added to you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that which you have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses which do not become old, a treasure in the heavens that fails not, where no thief draws near, neither moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. (Luke 12:31-34).

Bible prophecy appears like a spark of animation, causing the inspired Sacred Scriptures to come alive for each individual reader. All people on this earth, at some point in their lives, become intrigued by the basic questions of life: “Who am I? Why am I here on this earth?” etc. All of these perplexing questions, at some time or other, are considered by almost every human being who travels the pathway of life. Some people seek the answers in philosophy. Others find value in materialism. But few and far between are those who seek for the answers to their questions in the Bible, which, in itself, is the fountainhead of Yahweh’s

revealed Truth to mankind.

When the inspired Scriptures are read and applied to our daily lives as they should be, they take on a totally new, different, and exciting concept for the True Worshiper. While the Bible does indeed outline a way of life for each individual, it additionally carries the impact of a book of prophecy. Scholars claim that fully one-third of the Bible is prophecy. When the Truth-seeking student becomes aware of the monumental corpus of material that comprises Bible prophecy, he realizes that prophetic study is indeed important.

Bible prophecy genuinely reveals the end from the beginning. When the sincere reader of the Bible can place himself into the configuration of the fulfillment of those Bible prophecies, the book essentially becomes an exciting and thrilling avenue for clear two-way communication between the Most High Heavenly Father and His people. The Bible speaks to the True Worshiper, even as we communicate with Yahweh Elohim in prayer.

Since the plain signs of the end of the age presently appear so obviously all around us, we should take into consideration just how the Sacred Name doctrine is interrelated with these end-time events. The end times are designated in the inspired Scriptures as the “Day of Yahweh.” By researching the contextual passages that present to us a description of the Day of Yahweh, we encounter in Malachi 4:5 and 6 a most explicit prophecy dealing with the end times. When we understand it properly, this passage quite clearly illustrates that we are right now in the end days.

EliYah’s Appearance Predicted

Malachi 4:5-6 reads in the Sacred Scriptures, “Behold, I will send you EliYah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

Occasionally, a variety of ideas relating to the interpretation of this end-time prophecy have been expressed. The passage obviously asserts that the appearance of the Prophet EliYah will occur just prior to the coming of the great and dreadful Day of Yahweh. The context of this passage predicts that it definitely will occur during the time just before the final judgment our Heavenly Father will pour out upon this sinful world. This fact can be easily determined from verses 2 and 6. Please reread them carefully.

“But unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings; and you shall go forth, and gambol as calves of the stall....And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.” (Malachi 4:2, 6).

The purpose of the coming of EliYah is to restore True Worship to this earth. “Turning the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers” relates to the same purpose and calling as that of the prophets of old.

We might remember Jeremiah 6:16 as an example. “In this manner says Yahweh, Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk in it, and you shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk in it.”

Where is the True Worship of the Apostolic Assembly of Acts 2 located on this earth today? Has it been totally lost? In Luke

18:8 Yahshua asks, “I say to you, that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, shall he find [the] FAITH ON THE EARTH?”

The appearance of EliYah the prophet is for the purpose of restoring a widespread knowledge of the Faith of Yahweh to this earth before the judgment from heaven falls and the Kingdom of Yahweh is established on this earth. The purpose for which EliYah will come is to proclaim the identical Faith that was, once and for all, delivered to the saints.

If EliYah were not to appear, Almighty Yahweh, in judgment, would probably destroy His creation completely, because of the wickedness of man. However, the ministry of this dedicated individual will be influential in helping sincere people to understand the Truth of sound doctrine so they can take appropriate action to prepare themselves for the crisis days at the close of the age. We must realize that the curse mentioned in Malachi 4:6 refers to the punishment for sin and transgression of Yahweh’s Laws. When we notice Malachi 4:4, it becomes obvious that the keeping of the Law of Yahweh takes on supreme importance for the True Worshiper. Those who persist in committing sin and transgressing Yahweh’s Law will be under the curse, meaning they will be under the penalty for breaking it.

We may see this fact clearly demonstrated from Deuteronomy 28:15, “But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of Yahweh your Elohim, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, that ALL THESE

CURSES shall come upon you, and overtake you.”

Consequently, it is clear that EliYah the prophet will be preaching a way of life, a way of righteousness, the keeping of the Covenant Law of Yahweh, that will lead people out of sin and darkness. He will help them to avoid punishment for sin by teaching the reasons for keeping the biblical commandments. The Holy Spirit of Almighty Yahweh will convict sincere people, causing them to obey Him in the day of the appearance of EliYah the prophet.

Those who love the Most High Heavenly Father Yahweh Elohim will repent of their sins and bring their lives into complete harmony with the principles taught in the Word of Yahweh. In Revelation 7, we can notice that 144,000 people will heed the teaching of this renowned prophet. They are a select group of people, because they humbly follow the teaching of the Messiah. (Revelation 14). The context of this passage indicates that the voice of the 144,000 True Worshipers will preach the three angel messages sent through the air.

Let us examine, for just a moment, the meaning of the word prophet. In the Hebrew Scriptures, the word for prophet is נָבִיא, nabi’. This term has been defined by Gesenius, in his Hebrew and Chaldee Lexicon, as one who has been appointed by the Most High Heavenly Father to be His messenger and the declarer of His Will. A prophet either rebuked the conduct of kings and nations, or predicted future events. He did not speak his own words, but those which he had supernaturally received from the Holy Spirit of Yahweh.

In the most significant sense, the prophetic office was one of inspired preaching, exhorting the people of Yahweh to assume a life of humble obedience to the Covenant our Heavenly Father has given to the world. A prophet rebuked people for their sins against the Most High in breaking His commandments.

Prophecy (prediction), the secondary aspect, was subordinate to the prime purpose of the prophetic office (teaching). Prediction of things to come resulted if the message of the prophet from Almighty Yahweh was not heeded by the people.

In the English language, the word prophet has been greatly misunderstood and misinterpreted. We must always bear in mind the original Hebrew meaning of the word; if we do this, we will then be able to understand the significance of the writings of the prophets in the Old Testament text more clearly.

The Name EliYah Defined

In order to obtain a more accurate understanding of this end-time prophecy that was transmitted by Malachi, we must clearly scrutinize the complete interpretation of the name EliYah. As we have already seen in our study, Hebrew names have a meaning. These names are descriptive of some prominent characteristic of the person who bears them. Such is the obvious case with the name EliYah. When we dissect the word, its definition will both surprise and inspire you.

The name EliYah can be separated into three basic components for better understanding. The first syllable El comprises the abbreviation and root of the word Elohim. Elohim is a title for the Almighty that is derived from Hebrew words אֱלֹהִים or אֱל. These words mean strength or power.

Consequently, the word El would then mean the Mighty One, or, since the word Elohim is plural, it means, more specifically, Mighty Ones. The “i” in the middle of the word is understood as the possessive, first person, singular, pronominal suffix. It means my. The Yah at the end of the word is the English transliteration of the abbreviation Yah, the first syllable of the Tetragrammaton (YAHWEH), two of the four letters of the Heavenly Father’s revealed personal Name that was inspired to be written into the Hebrew Scriptures.

Consequently, the word, when accurately transliterated from the Hebrew to English, is EliYah. (Remember, there was no “J” sound in Hebrew, but the sound of the yod was “Y”.) This name, which was the appellative of a very prominent Old Testament prophet, means my Mighty One is Yahweh. Many groups today claim to be EliYah the prophet, but how many are actually preaching and living the message his name implies?

The student can now envision a very vital understanding of another aspect of end-time Bible prophecy. The prediction is that an EliYah the prophet would be proclaiming a unique biblical message on this earth in the last days. He would be exhorting the people to return to the original sound doctrines of the Bible. He would be teaching all those who desire to learn the True Worship that has come like a thread down through history. To authenticate that message, EliYah would be preaching in the revealed personal Name of the Almighty.

Those who repent at the preaching of EliYah will come out of the world of Babylon (Revelation 18:4). They will be spared from the plagues of the curse, or penalty for sin, which will come through the intervention of Almighty Yahweh into the affairs of men, and His judgment poured out upon those who sin. Remember, if one does not sin, Yahweh will have no need to judge him.

Now that we have laid out a firm foundation to achieve a better understanding of this end-time prophecy, let us turn to several more texts and discover how they relate to all of us today. You will just thrill with this wonderful knowledge coming alive before your eyes as your spiritual understanding is expanded.

John the Baptist, a Type of the End-Time EliYah

When Yahshua the Messiah made His appearance on this earth almost 2,000 years ago, He dowed with a special measure of Yahweh's Holy Spirit. John was a humble man. He had been called to prophesy and proclaim the coming of the Messiah of Israel. He exhorted his listeners to prepare for the coming of their Messiah King.

John's message was one of repentance, urging people to live a righteous life in harmony with the Word of Yahweh and in anticipation of their coming King. His preaching in the wilderness of Judea attracted a great deal of attention from the common people. From among the prominent political-religious establishment of his day, visitors came to his services as they sought to determine why John was attracting such great attention among the masses.

Nevertheless, it was the common people—those who had a great deal of humility and knew they needed salvation—who were the most moved by his message, and it is they who brought forth the fruits of repentance. John immersed them in the water of cleansing in anticipation of the Messiah's coming. Such an immersion can be related to the Jewish MIKWAH (ritual bath) and the ritual immersion of the Qumran community. Then, six months after John began his ministry, Yahshua the Messiah

"Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances."

MALACHI 4:4

When we notice Malachi 4:4, it becomes obvious that the keeping of the Law of Yahweh takes on supreme importance for the True Worshiper. Those who persist in committing sin and transgressing Yahweh's Law will be under the curse, meaning they will be under the penalty for breaking it.

was preceded by a forerunner—a man who came preaching the coming of the Messiah. This man is called, in the King James text, John the Baptist. In Matthew 3, Mark 1, Luke 3, and John 1, are recorded descriptions of this unique individual and his prophetic mission. John was the son of a priest. He was preaching in the wilderness of Judea. He was a poor man and wore the hairy garment of a prophet. John was obviously not a socially prominent individual.

Just as was the case with Yahshua the Messiah, John the Immerser (Baptist) had no form or comeliness that people would desire him (Isaiah 53:2). Nevertheless, he had been en-came upon the scene. It was John who performed the immersion of our Savior as Yahshua began His own ministry.

John was very bold in declaring his opposition to sin and wickedness. In the end, this unflinching dedication to his sacred duty cost him his life. He condemned the adulterous relationship between King Herod and his consort, Herodias. This incurred the hatred of Herodias, who instructed her daughter, Salome, to request the head of John the Baptist as a gift from the king in recognition for her talented dancing. You may read the entire account in Matthew 14 (among other places).

Yahshua's disciples came to Him on one occasion and asked a question concerning EliYah the prophet. “And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that EliYah must first come? And he answered and said, EliYah indeed comes, and shall restore all things: but I say to you, that EliYah is come already, and they knew him not, but did to him whatever they would. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them. Then understood the disciples that he spoke to them of John the Baptist.” (Matthew 17:10-13).

Many Bible doctrines must be correctly understood by taking into account every passage of Scripture that deals with the subject. People have misunderstood the above passage, because they have not taken into consideration other things Yahshua the Messiah has said on the subject of His forerunner, EliYah.

John the Baptist was indeed the forerunner of Yahshua's FIRST coming. In this regard, he only PARTIALLY fulfilled the prophecy of EliYah of Malachi 4:5 and 6. We have already seen that the prophecy of Malachi (“the great and dreadful Day of Yahweh”) would terminate the age of man.

The Day of Yahweh is a time of judgment. Obviously, by looking around us each day, we can determine that the age of man is still very much present. Nevertheless, the sin we see in the world today indicates that the end of the age is rapidly approaching. Consequently, let us seek the correct interpretation of this passage in Matthew 17 and harmonize it with the other passages relating to John the Baptist. We must conclude that Yahshua's Second Coming will also be preceded by a forerunner, one similar to the forerunner to announce Yahshua's first coming.

Previously, Yahshua the Messiah had qualified the statement He made in Matthew 17. Let us read Matthew 11:11 to 15. “Truly I say to you, Among them that are born of women there has not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and men of violence take it by force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. AND IF YOU ARE WILLING TO RECEIVE IT, THIS IS ELIJAH, THAT IS TO COME. He that has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Do you notice the point that Yahshua brought out very clearly? “IF YOU ARE WILLING TO RECEIVE IT, this is EliYah, that is to come.” The previous verses show that Yahshua the Messiah is discussing the advent of the Kingdom of Yahweh, the Kingdom of the Heavens.

Obviously, Israel did not receive the message of the Kingdom. Had they received the message of the Kingdom, we would presently be in that blessed Kingdom age today. Consequently, the great and dreadful Day of Yahweh, the day of judgment, is still future. The fulfillment of the prophecy was not exhausted. There is another EliYah still to come at the end of the age. He must prophesy just before the age of man ends.

EliYah and His Message

In order to completely comprehend the significance of this prophecy, we must return to the account of the prophet EliYah in the Old Testament. The first mention of this individual is in 1 Kings 17. The record of his ministry extends over into 2 Kings 2.

EliYah is called the Tishbite. The word Tishbite means sojourner. Interestingly, the priests of Israel were frequently called sojourners, because they were scattered among the cities of the Israelites and did not receive an inheritance with their brethren of the other tribes. Please read Numbers chapter 18 for more background.

EliYah pronounced the judgment of Yahweh upon Israel, because the ten northern tribes had fallen into idolatrous Baal worship. We must remember that the definition of the word Baal means L-rd. The word Baal represents a title for the mighty one in ancient Canaanite cultures. The word Baal meant a l-rd and then the name of a local mighty one was attached to this title. The Baals were l-rds of various cities, regions, or nations.

The tribes of Israel had been worshipers of Yahweh. When the ten northern tribes seceded, that nation fell into the worship of Baal through the marriage of King Ahab to a Phoenician princess called Jezebel (Isabel). Her name means virgin or wife of Baal. She introduced a heavy infusion of the worship of Baal into Israel, and she sought to eliminate the Hebrew worship of Yahweh. Jezebel even went so far as to condemn to death, and attempt to execute, all of the prophets of Yahweh. Only EliYah escaped, along with some fifty others who were hidden by Obadiah, one of King Ahab's trusted servants.

The above view depicts Mt. Carmel in the distance as seen from the Tel of Megiddo. The defensive city of Megiddo was located on the hillside below (to the south of Mt. Carmel).

When EliYah pronounced judgment upon the ten northern tribes of Israel for their apostasy, Yahweh's judgment was to be a very severe, extended drought. EliYah was supernaturally spared. He was sent to an area where springs of water continued to flow. Water flowed in the brook Cherith for several more years. When the brook dried up, EliYah was told to go to Zarephath, a village in the region of Zidon in Lebanon. There he stayed with a widow, and they were supernaturally supplied with food for the remainder of the drought and resulting famine.

EliYah Approaches King Ahab

Finally, Yahweh told EliYah to reveal himself to Ahab. When he confronted Ahab, the challenge he hurled at the Israelite king is most significant. He said, “... I have not troubled Israel; but... you have followed the Baalim.” 1 Kings 18:18. Fearlessly, like a spiritual giant, this great prophet of Yahweh was standing firmly for True Worship.

Israel had indeed forsaken the commandments of Yahweh. They no longer worshiped their True Mighty One by calling upon His Name. They had committed spiritual adultery and, undoubtedly, were committing physical adultery as well. The spiritual level of Israel at that time had sunken into an extremely low state. EliYah stood firmly upon the foundation of the keeping of Yahweh's commandments, maintaining fidelity to the Covenant Israel had made with the Most High, and he received the blessing of Yahweh by being chosen as His messenger.

The Decisive Contest on Mt. Carmel

EliYah challenged the priests of Baal and the government of Israel to a contest. This contest was to determine once and for all who was their True Mighty One. It was to be held on Mt. Carmel, a popular place of worship. The priests of Baal were to select a sacrificial animal and offer it upon the altar of Baal. EliYah would select a sacrificial animal and offer it upon the altar of Yahweh. The Mighty One answering by fire from heaven, consuming the sacrifice, would be proven to be the Mighty One of Israel. Subsequently, no other worship would be allowed.

When the day arrived on which this contest was to be held, the priests of Baal prepared their sacrifice and laid it upon the altar dedicated to Baal (the L-rd). From morning until noon they prayed and cried aloud for Baal to answer from heaven with a consuming fire to acknowledge his acceptance of the prepared sacrifice. When there was no answer, they jumped over (Hebrew-Pecach) the altar and became very riotous in their worship, trying to attract the attention of their mighty one.

EliYah mocked them and urged them to even greater frantic demonstrations. This caused the priests of Baal to slash and mutilate themselves with knives. Nevertheless, no answer from heaven was forthcoming, to the dismay of the priests of Baal. The proof was there for all to behold. Baal (the L-rd) was an imposter and pagan idol! He was unable to answer!

Then it was EliYah's turn. Calmly he rebuilt the altar of Yahweh that had been broken down. The word worship here could justifiably be substituted for altar, because it was at the altar that worship was rendered to the Most High, Psalm 138:2. We might say that in these last days, EliYah the prophet will be rebuilding the worship of the Most High Heavenly Father Yahweh that has fallen into decay. Compared with the hosts of Christianity, the worship of Yahweh has indeed fallen into deterioration and a breach had occurred, Isaiah 58:12.

Then EliYah prepared the sacrifice. He instructed his servants (or disciples) to dig a trench around the altar. Barrels of water were brought and poured over the sacrifice and the altar until the trench was completely filled with water. Where did the water come from during a drought? Since Mt. Carmel was close to the Mediterranean Sea, it probably came from there.

Calmly, EliYah raised his eyes to the heavens. He prayed a very short, but moving, prayer. He called upon Yahweh to prove Himself to His people and Israel to support His chosen prophet. At the end of his petition, fire fell from heaven and consumed the sacrifice of Yahweh in the eyes of the gathered Israelites. The sacrifice, the altar, and the water were consumed together in one awesome flash of blinding light. With united acclaim Israel recognized their Mighty One by shouting, "Yahweh, He is our Elohim! Yahweh, He is our Elohim!"

Additional Lessons to Be Learned From This Episode

There are several very significant things that you may learn by a careful reading of 1 Kings 18. First of all, restore the Name Yahweh to the text, where you see the translation "the L-rd," and from whence the Tetragrammaton was removed, and the meaning of this passage becomes candidly obvious. Then, where you see the word Baal, put in the correct translation,

“the L-rd.” An obvious confrontation between Yahweh and His servants and the L-rd and his servants appears. Today, that exact same type of confrontation is still going on! The Assemblies of Yahweh, the one lone voice of sound doctrine crying in the wilderness of religious confusion, is confronting over 750 different denominations of ch-rchianity. If we include some of the cults that have recently risen in our country, we might say that the ratio is exactly as it was in EliYah’s day—850 to 1.

Would you say that is coincidence? Of course not! It is most significant! But undoubtedly this number will also grow as the end of the age approaches. It is significant, also, that there is no safety in numbers, but the Truth will be held dear by only a minority of people who hold fast to biblically provable facts.

The people of our time have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh. Had they remembered to keep the commandments of Yahweh, they would have seen the Name of Yahweh in the Covenant Law. “I have remembered your name, O Yahweh, in the night, And have observed your law. This I have had, Because I have kept your precepts.” Psalm 119:55-56.

Those Bible students who read the Old Testament Scriptures, and allow the text to speak to them with authority, realize that the Name of Yahweh is most vital and important to our salvation. It appears frequently in the Pentateuch, found in the Old Testament 6,823 times, and, along with the additional instances where it is abbreviated, amounts to over 7,000 witnesses in the sacred text! The passages relating to the Sacred Name are quite dogmatic as they proclaim this Name to be the only one by which mankind can receive salvation. “And in none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, in which we must be saved.” Acts 4:12. Yahweh is the Mighty One of Israel, and we must serve and obey Him and His Son, Yahshua the Messiah.

The EliYah Message Today

When we read Revelation 11, we discover that two prophets in the last days will be ordained by Yahweh to be His representative witnesses. We have seen their mission as being similar to Moses and Aaron, standing in a leadership position over a modern, spiritual Israel, the end-time reconstitution of the Apostolic Assembly.

These END-TIME Israelites are the hundred forty and four thousand described in Revelation 7 and 14. They will be proclaiming the EliYah message to the people of the world just before the Messiah returns.

The two witnesses will be clothed in sackcloth. This is significant, because sackcloth symbolizes a sign of repentance and humility (Psalm 30:11 and 35:12-13). This is similar to the hairy garment worn by John the Baptist. These men will not be prominent people of the world, a part of the worldly establishment, but they will appear in simple garments similar to what John the Baptist wore as he cried out boldly against the evil of his day. Their ministry will immediately precede the Kingdom of Yahweh to come to this earth and will announce the Second Coming of Yahshua the Messiah, Revelation 7:14-15.

Turn to Revelation 14. In verses 6 to 10 we find the EliYah message following closely on the heels of the description of the hundred forty and four thousand. It is obvious from this passage that the select people who comprise this group will be proclaiming the Truth about the Sacred Name of the Heavenly Father and His eternal Covenant, that Babylon the great (the worship of this worldly system of things) will fall, and that the people of the world shall now submit themselves to the government of Yahweh destined to replace human governments of this world.

The True Worshipers will humbly submit themselves to worldly governments as long as those governments do not legislate a way of life contrary to the commandments of Yahweh, Romans 13:1-7. These end-time spiritual Israelites will never submit themselves to the mark of the Beast (Revelation 13).

You are hearing that message being proclaimed today on the Sacred Name Radio Broadcast, the Sacred Name Telecast, and through this publication and our other printed literature, or you may have met one of the brethren of the Assemblies of Yahweh who has witnessed this Truth to you.

EliYah Is Here!

We can see, then, that the EliYah message of these last days at the close of the age of man, before the coming of the Kingdom of Yahweh is established, will be proclaimed by a unified group of people. These people are dedicated by obedience to fulfill the terms of Yahweh’s Covenant. They have sincerely committed their lives to Almighty Yahweh.

The Sacred Name Broadcast

RADIO MESSAGE

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

EliYah is Here!

[This radio message is reprinted from the 9/2007 issue of the Sacred Name Broadcaster magazine.]

Satan is depicted in art as a creature with horns, a pointy beard, a tail, and hooves, carrying a three-tined fork. His assistant cohorts, employed by him in his projects, are depicted similarly. In various passages in the Scriptures, we are warned that the Adversary has his own religious organization which has been set up to teach his doctrines. How can you know which organization this is?

In 2 Corinthians 11:13-15, Paul issues this statement, describing these people who represent Satan, “For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of the Messiah. And no marvel; for even Satan fashions himself into an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

If you believe that you will be able to recognize the ministers of Satan, because they will be wearing horns and a tail, you are in for a shocking surprise! Believe me, the Adversary does indeed have his organization on this very earth right now; however, the only way that you will be able to recognize it is by the message that they preach.

In Hosea 4:6, the prophet writes under the inspiration of Almighty Yahweh, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no priest to me: seeing you have forgotten the law of your

How are the Assemblies of Yahweh different from all of nominal religion?

The reason for our unique worship is that we do not declare any Scripture null and void, nor do we circumvent any scriptural passage in a misguided endeavor to maintain the status quo and remain within the mainstream of nominal religious worship.

Elohim, I also will forget your children.

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge! Now we must ask ourselves, "Where may we go to find knowledge?" Is it from theology, is it from philosophy, or from some other worldly source that we may find the way of our Heavenly Father?

Actually, the Bible comprises the exclusive source of Truth; nevertheless, the interpretation of this textbook of life has been so perverted by human ideas that its true message can hardly be recognized. Always, whenever Yahweh's Truth is presented, it seems to be slandered as false doctrine. The basic reason for this rejection of the direct influence of the Bible upon the lives of people must be attributed to the attitudes of the people themselves. As the prophet Jeremiah has indicated in the fifth chapter of his prophecy, verse 31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; AND MY PEOPLE LOVE TO HAVE IT SO: and what will you do in the end of it?"

Have you ever recognized the fact that many of these scriptural passages are completely applicable for today? Here is another verse from the sixth chapter of

Jeremiah, verse 16, "In this manner says Yahweh, Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way; and walk in it, and you shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk in it."

Doesn't this present a most appropriate characterization of the people of our day? Contemporary society shrugs off the inspiration of the Bible in a display of arrogant self will as they pronounce it to be merely myths invented by a tribe of wandering Middle Eastern nomads. We must never be found supporting the concept of unenlightened, blind rejection of the Bible without first doing some very thorough investigation and analysis.

How are the Assemblies of Yahweh different from all of nominal religion? The reason for our unique worship is that we do not declare any Scripture null and void, nor do we circumvent any scriptural passage in a misguided endeavor to maintain the status quo and remain within the mainstream of nominal religious worship. The entire Bible that you have in your home, and which may be open on a table before you now, comprises one complete unit. Both Old and New Testaments actually complement and interpret each other.

How frequently I hear the fable that the Sacred Scriptures is a fabrication, not to be believed or trusted. The Apostle Peter in the first chapter of his second epistle, verse 16, states, "For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Master Yahshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty." To those who do not have the Holy Spirit of Yahweh, the Scriptures may appear to be cunningly devised fables, but to those who are guided by the spirit of Yahweh, we can perceive just how wonderful and perfectly co-ordinated they really are.

If you were to describe the True Worshipers today, how would you do this scripturally? The best scriptural description may be found in Revelation 12:17 and 14:12, which convey an identical message. "Here is the patience of the saints; They that keep the commandments of Yahweh, and the faith of Yahshua." (Revelation 14:12). These are the people who will be restoring all things as they were in the days of the early Apostles, prior to the time when the New Testament worship drifted away into false doctrine. The Assemblies of Yahweh rises above the current theological turmoil, and we accept the Sacred Scriptures as the authentic Word of Almighty Yahweh, because we have proven it to be true.

Having proved the Truth of the inspired Scriptures, we believe and obey all that the Bible teaches. Here, basically expressed, is the difference between the Assemblies of Yahweh and nominal religious worship. Instead of merely acknowledging the Bible as a moral code, we actively apply it to our personal lives, and we joyfully obey its teachings. If you would like to see the totally different worship which emerges from the pages of the Bible, begin to obey its teaching sometime.

The predecessor of our Savior, John the Baptist, came in the spirit and the power of EliYah (Elijah), as we read in Luke 1:17. “And he shall go before his face in the spirit and power of EliYah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for Yahweh a people prepared for him.”

Also consider the quote from Malachi chapter 4, verses 5-6. “Behold, I will send you EliYah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

People who have never studied the Bible may be puzzled over just who this EliYah (Elijah) could be, and you may be one of those who is mystified. Occasionally, I hear of someone who claims to be EliYah, but, by the very message which he is promulgating, I recognize that just another pseudo-prophet (false

DOING A GREAT WORK FOR YAHWEH!

“And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down.”

(NEHEMIAH 6:3A)

During the 1999 Assemblies of Yahweh Feast of Tabernacles, Elder Jacob O. Meyer (OBM) proposed to the brethren who attended that every sincere believer (who is financially able to do so) could offer a special sacrifice of $1,000 to be used to bring the WMLK radio transmitter up to an output transmission power of 175,000–200,000 watts. The response was immediate and most gratifying! (The term 100 K represents 100 people offering $1,000.)

The editor believes that some of The Sacred Name Broadcaster readers may wish to join this effort if apprised of the opportunity to do so. Consequently, this informative comment has been placed in The Sacred Name Broadcaster magazine.

WMLK, the Assemblies of Yahweh international shortwave radio station, is currently being updated and improved. The original transmitter broadcast operated for 15 years. A new antenna has been constructed using the existing towers. Then, in 2000, a used BBC 250,000-watt transmitter was purchased and renovated. On March 22, 2017, the BBC transmitter was damaged by a devastating transformer fire.

A new, state-of-the-art transmitter is being built that will incorporate the latest technology that will deliver a clear, crisp sound with the greatest efficiency available. As we all know, electricity costs have greatly increased; consequently, the higher efficiency will allow us to broadcast more—for less money. Also, the new transmitter will broadcast at 300,000 watts of power, and, in this way, MOST OF THE INHABITED AREAS OF THE WORLD WILL BE COVERED WITH THIS END-TIME MESSAGE THROUGH THE POWERFUL SIGNAL OF WMLK RADIO, in fulfillment of the prophecy of Matthew 24:14. “And these good tidings of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then shall the end come.”

If Almighty Yahweh lays this need upon your heart, and you desire to join us in this endeavor, we pray that His richest blessing will be upon you.

prophet) has been made manifest. Would you like to receive an explanation of this prophecy?

To gain an understanding of the mission which was given to the prophet EliYah by our Heavenly Father, we must return to the 18th chapter of 1 Kings. Here we find the original EliYah delivering a message to King Ahab, the head of the Israelite government. From his later actions, we can determine that the prophet was a sojourning priest who had been selected by Yahweh to deliver a message to His people Israel, the 10 northern tribes known as the House of Israel.

The 10 northern tribes of Israel had drifted into idolatrous Baal worship. The basic root cause of this departure into false worship could be traced to the alien wife of Ahab the king, who had married Jezebel, the daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonian nation. The name Jezebel, in the Hebrew is Isabel, and means virgin of Baal. Through her influence, the worship of Baal was widely introduced into Israel, along with the worship of Asherah, which is the Hebrew word translated groves in the King James.

The baals were the l-rds of the regions, who were worshiped under different names in each locality, while Asherah was an abominable sex worship which was practiced by the Canaanite and Moabite tribes.

In order to bring Israel to an attitude of humble repentance, EliYah was given the power to close the heavens for 3 and one half years so that no rain would fall upon the land of Israel. He was supplied supernaturally with the necessities of life, however, and provided with food and water continually. At the end of the 3 and one half years, Yahweh directed Elijah to propose a test between the priests of Baal and himself. The test was to be a supernatural answer, a display of miraculous power from the heavens. The mighty one who was the True Mighty One—Yahweh or Baal—was to answer by fire and consume the sacrifice which would be prepared by each contingent of worshipers. The worship of Yahweh was under the direction of His select prophet, EliYah, against the priests of the false religious worship: 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Asherah.

The first to complete preparations to offer their burnt offerings for their elohim were the priests of Baal. After preparing their sacrificial animals, they spent the entire morning imploring their mighty one to answer by fire to prove that he was the True Almighty. No answer was forthcoming, however. Finally, in the afternoon, at the appointed time for the evening sacrifice, EliYah prepared the offering dedicated to Yahweh. He first rebuilt the altar of Yahweh which had been broken down, meaning that he rebuilt the True Worship of Yahweh.

Taking the 12 stones representing all of the tribes of Israel, he rebuilt the altar and prepared the sacrificial bullock. Then, surprisingly, to prove that there were no tricks up his sleeve, he had the altar doused three times with barrels of water. He prayed a simple prayer to the Heavenly Father, asking that He would vindicate His Name and prove once and for all to Israel that Yahweh was the True Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel.

The subsequent answer by supernatural fire from heaven consumed the sacrifice, the altar, and, also, the water. This shocked Israel into a united proclamation of repentance, “Yahweh, He is the Mighty One. Yahweh, He is the Mighty One.”

If you read the context of Malachi chapter 4, you will note that this prophecy has not as yet been fulfilled, even though it saw limited fulfillment in the ministry of John the Baptist. This prophecy is for our time. It means that the identical message that was preached by the Old Testament prophet EliYah to ancient Israel is once again to be preached to the entire world just before the return of our Savior, Yahshua the Messiah. The significant revelation of this message can be found in the name of this prophet.

Let me break it down for you. The first part of his name, el, is the abbreviation of the Hebrew word elohim and it means Mighty One (or mighty ones). The i in the middle of the name represents a possessive personal pronoun and means my. The YAH at the end of the word is the abbreviation of the personal Name of the Heavenly Father Yahweh, for example, as in the Hebrew imperative halleluYAH. Now can we understand the meaning of this name? It means, “MY MIGHTY ONE IS YAH!”

Today you are once more hearing that same identical message being proclaimed to modern Israel that was proclaimed to ancient Israel by the prophet EliYah, along with the identical True Worship which was practiced in the New Testament Apostolic Assembly.

Will you act on this information and investigate the merits of this Sacred Name message for yourself right now? The time is short! THE DAY OF YAHWEH IS NEAR. Act today! ^{SNB}

Yahweh Makes A DIVISION

The division of the people becomes evident on the Feast of Trumpets

DIVISION

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

One of the main aspects of the Feast of Trumpets centers around Yahweh dividing the good from the bad. Matthew chapter 25 begins: "..when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he will separate them one from another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats..." The message is clear—the sheep of Yahweh will hear His message and prepare for Yahweh's Kingdom. They will not be led astray, but will have accepted the message of the Sacred Scriptures, applied the Word to their life, and hope in salvation.

Years ago, I noticed that the names of the months on the common calendar diverge from their meaning. September—the Latin root being Septem—comes from the number seven, although it is the ninth month on the calendar. October—Octo—means eight. Novem, nine in Latin, is the root of the month of November. Finally, Decem—number 10 in Latin—is the root of the name December, the 12th and final month on our common calendar. When I noticed the enigma as to why the meanings of the names of these months were two numbers removed from their placement on our modern calendar, I began to closely examine the influence that the Bible had on modern time-keeping. I discovered that Pope Gregory the XIII had sought to cover up the Truth of Yahweh's Word and to remove Yahweh's annual holy day cycle from the Gregorian calendar.

Beginning at Passover, we remembered the sacrifice of Yahshua the Messiah for our sin. And, then, we experienced the cleansing from sin through the Feast of Unleavened Bread, as we ate the unleavened food of sincerity and Truth for an entire week. Following seven weeks of additional cleansing, we prepared the vessels of our lives to receive the Holy Spirit on Shavuoth—Feast of Weeks—Pentecost. Finally, to conclude the annual cycle, comes the four holy days contained in the seventh month: The Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, the seven days of the Feast of Tabernacles, and the Last Great Day at the end of the Feast. Yahweh intends each holy day to teach us a lesson and to impress upon us His plan of salvation.

The Feast of Trumpets has great implications on our spiritual life as we prepare for the coming Kingdom of Yahweh. Falling on the inaugural day of the seventh month, this Feast stands at the head of the month which contains the most holy days in Yahweh's annual feast cycle. The Feast of Trumpets revolves around the clear-warning call of the shofar. This signal gives us direction today, just as it did to ancient Israel. The sincere Bible student will hear the call and be prepared for Yahweh's plan as it is implemented.

In the book of Yahshua, chapter 6, we find the history of the first city that Israel encountered when they entered the Promised Land. The gates of Jericho had been fortified by the Canaanites to ward off the siege that Israel was to lay against the city. Although the task seemed insurmountable, Yahweh appeared with clear instructions. “And Yahweh said to Yahshua, See, I have given into your hand Jericho, and the king of it, and the mighty men of valor.” (Yahshua 6:2). How could that be? The city of Jericho has a high wall—the gates of it have been closed and fortified. Yahweh continues: “You shall go around the city, all the men of war, going about the city once. In this manner you shall do six days. And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark: and the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. And it shall be, that, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet [the ram's horn] the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat [it will sink into the ground—straight down], and the people shall go up every man straight before him.” (Yahshua 6:3-5). Yahweh was going to make a way for His people where no way was humanly possible.

Yahshua faithfully relayed the instruction to the priesthood: for six days, send seven priests to go before the Ark of the Covenant—protected by the men of war marching in front of, and at the rear of, this precious symbol of Yahweh's presence—and go around the city. As this small troop of Israelites was passing the wall, Yahweh commanded that they should blow the trumpets, but must keep their voices silent. On the seventh day, however, Yahweh instructed that they were to go around the wall seven times, and, as the circuit was being completed, the priests were to sound loud blasts with the horn. When the Israelites heard the trumpet sound, they were to shout at the top of their voices, and the walls of the city would come down. That is exactly what happened on the seventh day—the nation of Israel captured Jericho! By obeying the sound of the trumpet, Israel was able to gain access to Yahweh's Promised Land.

Notice how instrumental the number seven is to this event. Remember that the number seven stands for spiritual perfection. They went around the city seven times on the seventh day. During the seventh time, the priests blew the trumpets and, as had Yahshua had instructed, united their shout of victory. Although we are not told what they were to shout, I can surmise that the words “Yahweh Nissi” or “Yahweh Sabaoth” (Yahweh our Banner, or Yahweh of Hosts) were the words that were ringing out as the walls came down. “...When the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went out into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.” (Yahshua 6:20). To reinforce that the victory was Yahweh’s, the war booty was to be devoted to Yahweh, and, except for Rahab, all the citizenry was to be annihilated. Israel was able to carry out this miraculous victory, because they had obeyed the commands of Yahweh Elohim and His servant.

“...When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he will separate them one from another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats....”

— MATTHEW 25:31-32 —

“And when you go to war in your land against the adversary that oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before Yahweh your Elohim, and you shall be saved from your enemies.” (Numbers 10:9). The sound of the trumpet at the fall of Jericho signified a coming war, a conflict in which Yahweh would save His people from their enemies. Almighty Yahweh is going to someday save us from the great enemy—death. But remember that the salvation of an obedient nation is dependent on the sounding of yet another trumpet—the great trumpet call which will precede the arrival of the returning Messiah Yahshua.

The Feast of Trumpets symbolizes a call to action. Yahweh’s people, who obey the voice of Yahweh, will eventually arrive at the Kingdom of Yahweh. The people of the world who ignore the trumpet sound will find themselves at the Battle of Armageddon, where Yahweh will judge the nations. Therefore, the Feast of Trumpets symbolizes a division of the people who live in this world. Remember the title of this message, “Yahweh Makes a Division.” Yahweh will reward the obedient and judge the rebellious. His obedient people will hear the warning call and prepare for His Kingdom to come. The world and the acts of unrighteousness will be cast aside.

In Revelation, chapter 16, beginning with verse 12 (a prophecy of the last days): “And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the Euphrates; and the water of it was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrising [from Asia—east of the Holy Land]. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs: for they are spirits of demons, working signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole world, to gather them together to the war of the Great Day of Yahweh, the Almighty.” Described here is the Battle of Armageddon. Three unclean spirits like frogs—one coming out of the mouth of Satan the Devil, the second coming out of the mouth of the Beast, the third coming out of the mouth of the false prophet—will seek to destroy the Faith of the righteous. Satan will organize a government that will oppress True Worship and force the world to bow down to its idolatrous religion. I am appalled that people cannot see the idolatry that appears in nominal Christianity! Have you noticed it? Have you noticed the emphasis on the cross in worldly worship? The cross is a sun symbol, and, furthermore, it is a symbol of the female and the symbol of sex. Pagan religion says that the key to eternal life is the cross! That is why the Beast system will incorporate a false prophet, preaching a false religion, a religion that will not save anyone, but condemn them to eternal punishment. It is the spirit of demons—Satan's assistants, his underlings—who were once Yahweh's angels.

People forget that Yahweh had one-third of His angels fall away from Him. I wonder what that did to Yahweh when that great apostasy among His created, angelic beings fell away from the Kingdom of Yahweh, the Kingdom of the heavens. This demonic hoard will be working signs, going forth to the kings of the whole world, gathering them together to war—not to peace—but to war! I thought of some of these things this past week as I watched the American military gearing-up for conflict. But remember, the victory is of Yahweh, it will not be of the American military. The victory will be of Yahweh—always remember that.

“(Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.)” (Revelation 16:15). What does this Scripture mean to us? Our garments—clothes of righteousness—must be watched and kept secure. There is no other way than for us to be different from the world. We can't engage—be a part of—the society that surrounds us today. Worldly attitudes are evident in every aspect of society. Take for instance “gangster rap.” Today's children avidly absorb the violent and hateful message that is contained in what they call music. When I listen to religious or classical music, I get inspired inside! Even the worldly music, when I was young, didn't depress me. But the noise that is presented as music is garbage—depressing. Why can't they put on some good classical organ music, or religious music, and get inspired? Instead, they choose something that depresses them and leads them into pathways of evil action. Brethren, Yahshua is returning! We must concentrate on preparing our lives to present to Yahweh an unblemished sacrifice, acceptable before Him.

All around us we see prophecy being fulfilled. In the seventh chapter of Amos, verse 1: “In this manner the Sovereign Yahweh showed me: and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.” Let me tell you, we have had a year of pests in our area. When I was raking the hay here on this very property, a large cloud of grasshoppers flew out in front of me. And how about the spiders? A news item was presented to me that really set me on my heels. The newspaper article described how spiders were mutating and massively growing in size. What is that going to do if that stings you? A small one almost killed me! A massive dose of a mutant's venom would be catastrophic! We must sharpen our focus on the Kingdom and what we must do to get there when we see things such as this taking place.

Matthew chapter 24 is another example of the division that Yahweh puts on the people. Verses 29-31: “But immediately after the tribulation of those days [testing—heavy trial] the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send forth his angels with the sound of the great trumpet [Isaiah 27:13 says it will be blown by Yahweh, or Yahshua, the second Yahweh], and they shall gather together his elect [not everyone, just the elect—selected ones] from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Even though the world will throw itself behind the evil Beast system, there will be a small remnant that is saved by Yahweh from across the face of the earth.

Look again at Matthew 13, verse 38: “...The field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are angels.” And then, drop down to verse 43: “...Shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that has ears, let him hear.” Now consider verse 47: “...the kingdom of heaven is like to a net, cast into the sea....” A net cast into the water will gather up many different kinds of fish. When a fisherman comes to shore with his catch, he must then separate the good from the bad— gathering the good into vessels—casting the bad away. “So shall it be in the consummation of the age: the angels shall come forth [with the sound of the trumpet], and sever [cut—divide] the wicked from the righteous, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.” Which type of life do we lead? One that ignores the trumpet’s warning call will be cast away, while those attentive servants will be drawn into Yahweh’s service.

The end of the age is announced by the sounding of the trumpet—Isaiah 27:13. A trumpet signals the second coming of Yahshua the Messiah. (1 Corinthians 15, verse 50). “Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh; neither does corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I tell you a mystery: We won't all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye [like the plane hitting the World Trade Center, for example] ...for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. This is reiterated by Paul in 1 Thessalonians 4:15: "For this we say to you by the word of Yahweh, that we that are alive, that are left to the coming of Yahshua, shall in no wise precede them that have fallen asleep. For Yahshua himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel [the loud voice proclaiming—it's finished], and with the trumpet of Yahweh: and the dead in the Messiah shall rise...." Yahweh's elect will not be forsaken—as Yahshua was not forsaken in the grave—but shall rise to meet Him in the air!

Revelation 10:5-7: "And the angel that I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right hand to heaven, and swore by him that lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and the things that are in them, and the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there shall be delay no longer: but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of Elohim, according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants the prophets." How clearly the message of the Feast of Trumpets comes in here. The culmination of the age of man will be heralded by an audible sound that will begin dividing between Yahweh's servants and the ones who have accepted that mark of the Beast. "And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Yahweh, and of his Messiah: and he shall reign forever and ever." (Revelation 11:15).

The division of the people becomes evident on the Feast of Trumpets. It is a time for us to make a decision. Do you love the Name of Yahweh? Do you love the Word of Yahweh? Do you love the plan of salvation that Yahweh has placed in His Word? Those who are Yahweh's servants must separate themselves from the world and all of its influence over the next nine days leading up to the Fast of Atonement. The world will ignore Yahweh and His Word. Conversely, Yahweh's people heed—embrace—obey it. This will naturally cause a division between us—a separation—and the evil of the world.

When the call went out in that sermon on the first post-ascension Feast of Pentecost, the message was clear—Acts 2:40: "...He testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation." The ones who received the Word were baptized, and the other ones went their way and became critics. This message rings forth even into this modern time. The end of the age is coming! "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. Outside are the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone that loves and makes a lie." (Revelation 22:14-15). The only ones allowed into the New Jerusalem are those who have kept themselves free from sin. Outside are the Gentiles, the dogs, the sinners, the sorcerers, the fornicators, the murderers, and the idolaters. Through their actions they have put something between themselves and Yahweh.

Who will listen? Who will heed the words and make the necessary changes? Therefore, we conclude that the trumpet is an instrument used by Yahweh—a voice of warning, a voice of instruction, a voice of action, a voice of doing—that will divide between the holy and the common. Let us heed the Word of Yahweh as we consider the lessons to be learned on the Feast of Trumpets and go on into the Kingdom of Yahweh! S^NB

ELIYAH

Forerunner of Messiah

They have made their exodus from Babylon. They will not accept the mark of the Beast.

The True Worshipers of the reconstituted Apostolic Assembly are spiritual virgins, because they are betrothed to Yahshua the Messiah, the coming King of all this earth. They form a righteous nation, a royal priesthood, a holy group of people. They are governed by the scriptural form of authority. They bear the fruits of the Spirit and are humbly seeking to live in harmony with the Word of Yahweh.

Yahshua the Messiah, in Matthew 24:24, warned His disciples about the end of the age, a time in which many false messiahs (anti-Messiahs) and false prophets would arise showing great signs and wonders. The Apostle Paul followed this prediction with a prophecy in 2 Thessalonians 2:9 and 10 when he also predicted that the man of sin would appear with all power and signs and lying wonders.

“Even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and wonders of falsehood, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.” (2 Thessalonians 2:9-10).

Conversely, we must remember that EliYah the prophet did few miracles in the Old Testament, eight to be exact. His successor Elisha (his name means My Elohim is Salvation, while the Name of Yahshua means Yahweh is Salvation) received a double portion of Yahweh’s Holy Spirit and did double the number of miracles: 16.

John the Baptist, the forerunner of Yahshua, did no miracles (John 10:41). But he was instrumental in proclaiming a powerful message that convicted the hearts and minds of the people of his time so that multitudes desired to become followers of Yahshua the Messiah. Just as EliYah preceded Elisha, and John the Baptist announced the first appearance of Yahshua the Messiah, the Assemblies of Yahweh today precedes and announces the SECOND COMING of Yahshua. Are you preparing for His glorious appearance by becoming a part of His Body?

Today, you are hearing a similar restoration message such as EliYah preached. The modern-day EliYah in the Assemblies of Yahweh comprises a group of sincere people who are sacrificially proclaiming the whole counsel of Yahweh without fear or favor. We realize that our message is not popular; nevertheless, people who have humble hearts will listen, repent, and turn toward the Truth. These sincere people realize from Bible study that the majority groups of the religious spectrum today are not worshipping Yahweh, the True Mighty One of Israel, the Mighty One of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Modern spiritual Israel, the called-out ones who are keeping the commandments of Yahweh, will proclaim the beauty of this way of life to the people of the world. Although they have little in the way of resources, an open door has been placed before them (Revelation 3:8). They have walked through that open door by faith to take this message to the world. Yahshua the Messiah supplies all they need to do the job.

Are you allowing this EliYah message to penetrate into your heart and change your life? Are you humbly accepting the Word of Yahweh as it is being taught in these last days in this EliYah message?

The end of the age is rapidly approaching, wherein the heavens will burst open, and Yahshua the Messiah will return to gather His people and establish His Kingdom. Be sure you are prepared for that glorious time. Don’t neglect to make your calling and election sure. ^{SNB}
